Figure 1 shows four small grayscale images arranged horizontally. Each image depicts a person's face from the chest up, with a white cloth being used to cover it. The first image on the left shows the cloth just starting to be pulled over the head. The second image shows the cloth partially covering the face. The third image shows the cloth covering most of the face, leaving only the eyes visible. The fourth image on the right shows the cloth fully covering the face, with only the hands holding the edges visible.
