REPORT OF EVENTS

Attacked at 1000 following two artillery preparations. Advanced to Remilly-Sur-Lozon with Company A on our right rear. We spearheaded again. Received mortar, artillery, small arms fire from the enemy during the attack and during the occupation of the objective. Moved into defensive position and dug in. Receiving heavy artillery, mortar and automatic weapons fire. Casualties suffered mainly due to our own mortar and artillery fire. An excellent performance of bravery and outstanding leadership was shown by 2d Lt Cecil D Maynard Second Platoon leader. Bravery is unquestionably outstanding of the whole Company.

supported by five light tanks and artillery concentration. Advanced 200 yds and enemy was temporarily pinned down by fire from our tanks and weapons. The tanks moved rapidly and we were unable to keep abreast of them, thereupon the Germans opened fire on our leading assault platoon. As soon as their positions were bypassed by the tanks the 1st & 3d Platoons were then pinned down by cross fire from machine guns located on both flanks. The 3d platoon was committed in an attempt to envelope around the rt flank. Due to the open terrain and location of enemy automatic weapons this attempt was unsuccessful. The 1st platoon suffered heavy casualties, the entire 1st Sqn was put out of action, the men either killed or wounded, the enemy having very good operation. laid a heavy concentration of 88mm and medium artillery fire directly into our attacking echelon. German mortar fire then inflicted more casualties on the leading assault. The tanks were recalled back to the line of departure and covered partly the withdrawal of the company to its original

RECORD OF EVENTS

Remained in defensive position protecting the right flank of the 60th Infantry. At 0940 a force of P-47's started their bombing mission generally along highway No. 3 south of our positions. These planes were followed by a large force of B-24's and B-17's which also bombed same mission. The air was filled with allied planes, and were met by a terrific anti-aircraft barrage. Two of the B-24's were shot down and crew members were seen dropping out in one bomber. Bombing lasted until 1245. This orgn. being in regimental reserve remained in position while other units begin the attack. at 1300 Being well forward of other units, an excellent blow by blow description was witnessed by the men. The air was black with smoke and dust, and particles of debris also bomb racks fell in and around our C.F. Surrender leaflets were dropped by the thousands by our air force over enemy lines. We received heavy mortar and artillery fire into our positions causing 8 casualties

Co crossed St Lo & Pines highway at 1000, being the first unit in the division to cross. Atchd with Co G north of highway, we being on the south, met strong enemy resistance & crossfire fr M's which held up 83rdinfdivdocs.org Employed mortar and cannon fire in an attempt to knock out the enemy guns, but failed. Finally located a point in the line where a break through was possible. Attacked again, and broke through. M's on left flank was knocked out by our rifle-men closing in on their positions. The attack then progressed more rapidly and contact was made with the enemy who kept rolling back

RECORD OF EVENTS (CURRENT)

Made preparations for an attack that was begin at 0815, following a ten minute artillery preparation. At 0805 artillery preparation fell in- to our own positions completely disorganizing the entire Company. We reorganized and moved forward the attack. 83rdinfdivdocs 200 yds another concentration of our own artillery fell into our own lines causing many casualties and again disorganizing the company. The moral of the men was then very low. Our artillery from one dir- ection, and enemy from the other. Lt Maynard matched his wits with the artillery by jumping across the hedge when our artillery fired, and returned to the other side when enemy fired.

After reorganizing we pushed on in the attack again & advanced 200 yds and were met by a very strong enemy resistance. Attempted to attack to the front, but suffered many casualties, so we withdrew. Leading Platoon then went around the flank (left) with the support platoon but they also met stiff resistance, so withdrew. Contacted Co C on our left and made plans for joint attack after placing down numerous concentrations of 81mm fire. Elements of Co C advanced approximately 100 yds when the enemy opened up with MG's and a direct fire weapon believed to be a 88mm Gun. They also suffered casualties, and we were again forced to withdraw. We then received orders at 2100 to consolidate our positions, dig in and set our defenses for the night. The spirit and courage of the men, new and old was outstanding, and their willingness to follow orders in the face of fierce enemy resistance was remarkable.

Received orders to move company and set up a defensive position near Le Lorey. Company moved out at 1000 and set up a defense position along the Le Luzon River. I call it a creek. At 1900 enemy planes came over and were shot down by our AA guns. Pilot bailed out and our AA guns shot at him while he was coming down in mid-air.
