RECORD OF EVENTS

As of 7 Jan 45-Company moved out across hill at 0800 this morning and went into the town of Verlaument. The men were loaded on tanks and headed for the next town. The tanks opened fire on the hills to the front and about thirty Germans came out and were taken prisoners. The men then walked behind the tanks. When the tanks started down the hill they were fired upon by German Anti-tank guns. One tank was knocked out and the other tanks turned back leaving our 1st platoon down the hill by themselves. The 1st platoon went into the town anyway and took three houses. Weather cold. Morale very poor.
