On 10 APR 45, crossed up the Wesser River, riding tanks to Golmbach. Rested personnel got haircuts and washed themselves. On 11 APR 45 moved out at dark on trucks. Because of dusty roads & mechanical failure, convoy was widely dispersed by morning.

On 16 APR 45 supported by 2 tanks & 2 TD's moved south into Steckby Forest clearing woods and hills. Upon orders, set up a defensive position on edge of woods near Eischholz. A 14 man patrol, under the protection of tanks placed in the edge of woods advanced 1400 yds over open terrain to seize and occupy the town of Eischholz. The company's front was then extended 2000 yds to the river and thinly held defensive positions were dug. This was the right flank of the 83d bridgehead. On 17 APR 45 thinly held defensive positions were improved as much as possible. 3 bridges to our front were blown and patrols were sent out to the front.

by enemy, estimated to be a company. At 0445 enemy hit left flank heavily, shortly after that, the right flank was hit by the enemy infantry in waves. 0500, on orders, outpost pltn withdrew along previously determined route after it had brought flanking fire to bear on the attacking forces and had accounted for at least 40 of the enemy. The outpost pltn was then used to strengthen the flanks & protect the rear. The unit on our left withdrew and the enemy broke around our right flank. A squad was sent out to clean up behind the right flank and 2 enemy tanks moved north along the main road on left flank. Patrols were sent out to both flanks and to the rear but were unable to contact anyone except the enemy. the man for the entire 12 hr counter-attack. At 1600 the unit on our left was regaining the ground lost and contact patrols came up fr units moving to our rear. As evidence of the fight 30 or more Germans dead were strewn along our company front in addition to the 40 or more at the outpost pltn and those killed by artillery fire in the woods to our front; 8 prisoners and 5 wounded were picked up. Our losses were 8 KIA, 5 MIA, and 8 wounded. Both Bn and Regt Cmdrs commended our troops. On 19 Apr 45 patrols were sent out to the front to inspect blown bridges and to see if the enemy had withdrawn completely. Positions were improved. In the afternoon Co. "C" 330th took over our positions and we moved to defensive positions around the town of Badetz.
