SOME FACTS ABOUT THE 755TH MILITARY POLICE BATTALION

The 755th Military Police Battalion (Z. I.) was activated under the command of Major (now Lt. Colonel) Richard J. Dillon on February 12, 1942.

One member of the Battalion, Corporal Albert R. Bachus, of Company C, was decorated with the Soldier's Medal on October 27, 1942, for bravery in saving the lives of two other soldiers.

Ninety-one percent of the men in the Battalion have qualified with the rifle.

Two hundred and seventeen men have received the good conduct medal.

Eighteen men have been sent to Officer Candidate School.

Fourteen officers of the battalion have attended the Provost Marshal General's School. One has completed the Advance Course, three have completed the Refresher Course, five have completed the Investigators' Course, and five have completed the Company Officers' Course.

Two officers have left the Battalion to train for duty with the Allied Military Government.
