Dear Sir:

Your letter of 5 April 1946, informing me of the burial place of my late husband, Staff Sergeant 293 Robert C. Krieg, A.S.N. 35 516 426, was received.

All of my previous correspondence with the War Dept.
has definitely stated that they had no record of his whereabouts or status. Now you give me his burial location. I would like to know if this is his actual remains or if they gave his name to an unknown soldier as the newspapers onetime stated they were planning to do.

I am very anxious to learn the truth, regardless what it might be.

Thanking you for your kindness and sincere sympathy,
I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Ellen Krieg

Dear Mrs. Krieg:

This is to inform you that the remains of your loved one have been permanently interred, as recorded above, side by side with comrades who also gave their lives for their country. Customary military funeral services were conducted over the grave at the time of burial.

After the Department of the Army has completed all final interments, the cemetery will be transferred, as authorized by the Congress, to the care and supervision of the American Battle Monuments Commission. The Commission also will have the responsibility for permanent construction and beautification of the cemetery, including erection of the permanent headstones. The headstone will be inscribed with the name exactly as recorded above, the rank or rating where appropriate, organization, State, and date of death. Any inquiries relative to the type of headstone or the spelling of the name to be inscribed thereon, should be addressed to the American Battle Monuments Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Your letter should include the full name, rank, serial number, grave location, and name of the cemetery.

While interments are in progress, the cemetery will not be open to visitors. You may rest assured that this final interment was conducted with fitting dignity and solemnity and that the grave-site will be carefully and conscientiously maintained in perpetuity by the United States Government.

Sincerely yours,

H. FELDMAN

Dear Mrs. Krieg:

The people of the United States, through the Congress have authorized the disinterment and final burial of the heroic dead of World War II. The Quartermaster General of the Army has been entrusted with this sacred responsibility to the honored dead. The records of the War Department indicate that you may be the nearest relative of the above-named deceased, who gave his life in the service of his country.

The enclosed pamphlets, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," and "American Cemeteries," explain the disposition, options and services made available to you by your Government. If you are the next of kin according to the line of kinship as set forth in the enclosed pamphlet, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," you are invited to express your wishes as to the disposition of the remains of the deceased by completing Part I of the enclosed form "Request for Disposition of Remains." Should you desire to relinquish your rights to the next in line of kinship, please complete Part II of the enclosed form. If you are not the next of kin, please complete Part III of the enclosed form.

If you should elect Option 2, it is advised that no funeral arrangements or other personal arrangements be made until you are further notified by this office.

Will you please complete the enclosed form, "Request for Disposition of Remains" and mail in the enclosed self-addressed envelope, which requires no postage, within 30 days after its receipt by you? Its prompt return will avoid unnecessary delays.

Dear Mrs. Krieg:

Your letter concerning your husband, the late Staff Sergeant Robert C. Krieg, has been received in this office.

You may be assured that the burial information furnished you in a letter from this office dated 5 April 1946 is accurate and pertains to the actual remains of your husband. Every precaution is taken to preserve the identity of our deceased military personnel. The body was properly identified before interment, and at the time of interment one identification tag was buried with the body and the other attached to the grave marker for future identification.

Dear Mrs. Krieg:

The War Department is most desirous that you be furnished the burial location of your husband, the late Staff Sergeant Robert C. Krieg, A.S.N. 35 516 426.

The records of this office disclose that his remains are interred in the U. S. Military Cemetery, Bloisville, France, plot AA, row 2, grave 39.

This cemetery is located twenty miles northwest of St. Lo, twenty-four miles southeast of Cherbourg and five miles north and slightly west of Carenton, all in France, and is under the constant care and supervision of United States military personnel.

Please accept my sincere sympathy in the loss of your husband.
